Concerned Tenant:

In light of the current financial strain facing our economy, we have seen a dramatic increase in the number of evictions and foreclosures our Office has been handling. Many residents could benefit from resources available that most are unfamiliar with. In an attempt to assist citizens facing difficult financial circumstances, we have compiled a resource guide of organizations specializing in assisting those who are in the midst of foreclosure/eviction. Many of these organizations can provide emergency shelter or other housing options, assistance with rent, utility bills, clothing, meals, reduced price prescriptions, etc. It is our sincere hope that you may find resolve and support within these various organizations.
